

UHISA Teaching Awards

Who did you vote for?

- Most inspiring lecturer
- Best dissertation supervisor
- Greatest expertise in VC delivery
- Most engaging online tutor
- Best assessment feedback
- Best Student Adviser
- Most innovative lecturer

What are the awards? - Students value good teaching and the UHI Students Association want to recognise and reward excellent teaching in UHI. This is your chance to vote for the best lecturers you have encountered on your programme of study.

Why should I nominate someone? - We know that there are a number of great lecturers out there, now it's your chance to give them the recognition they deserve.

How do I nominate? - During March please go to www.uhi.ac.uk and click the UHISA Teaching Awards button on the home page. This will direct you to a list of awards, the definitions and a nomination form. Complete the form giving as much detail as possible about the reasons you are nominating them. Then click the Submit button at the bottom. You can nominate throughout March. Don't miss out!

When will I find out the results? - Results will be posted on the website towards the end of April. There will also be articles about the successful nominees in a number of UHI publications.

Anyone who nominates a member of staff shall be entered into a draw for an iPod!
